II. CLARIFICATIONS

REQUEST/ISSUE	CLARIFICATION/RESOLUTION
Clarification from: Lexton Trading and SKRAPA Trading What if several bidders submitted their proposal for a particular lot and only one bidder complied with all the requirements, would you give the bidder the award for the lot? What if there is only one bidder who submitted a proposal?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>As discussed during Prebid Conference, if there is only one bidder who submitted a proposal, there will be a failure of Public Auction as provided in the COA CIRCULAR NO. 89-296 (5.2.a.1), to wit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. There was a failure of a public auction. As envisioned in this Circular, there is failure of public auction in any of the following instances: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>If there is only one offeror. In this case, the offer or bid, if sealed, shall not be opened. </li> </ol> </li> </ul> </li> </ul> xxx If several bidders joined and submitted their proposal, the award would be given to the highest bidder who complied with all the requirements. However, if there are several bidders who joined the auction and only one (1) bidder submitted a proposal for a particular lot, the same will be declared failure of bidding for that particular lot following the same provision as discussed above.

The herein amendments form an integral part of the bidding documents. Correspondingly, all other provisions in the bidding documents affected by these amendments are similarly amended or modified.
